The soft, warm glow of the lights in the hallway creates a cozy atmosphere. The lighting design is a key element of the overall aesthetic, highlighting the architectural details and creating a warm, inviting space.

A master of style proved to be a brilliant husband-to-be as the architect, who is from Hawaii to Maui, where he has done a great amount of work for the area. He is a Maui resident, but it's his wife who built the house. She is a Maui resident, but it's his wife who built the house. She is a Maui resident, but it's his wife who built the house.
